TRIBUTE

We wish to pay special tribute to the Salesian Fathers. They were the originators of a Catholic Directory for South Africa. Ever since 1904 they have, through the Salesian Press in Cape Town, compiled and published the Directory. This has constituted an invaluable contribution on the part of the Salesian Fathers to the apostolate of the Press in South Africa.

We wish to express our gratitude to them for these years of service as also for their kind co-operation in this new Directory.

HIERARCHY OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Catholic Church is a structured society. It is organized along the following lines for purposes of pastoral service and orderly government and administration.

The pope is the supreme head of the Church. He has primacy of jurisdiction as well as honour over the entire Church and all of its members.

Bishops, in union with and in subordination to the pope, are the successors of the Apostles for care of the Church. They serve the people of their own dioceses with ordinary authority and jurisdiction. They also share, with the Pope and each other, in common concern and effort for the general welfare of the whole Church, and in various ways act in concert with the pope and each other in a collegiate manner.

Bishops of exceptional status are Eastern Rite patriarchs who, subject only to the pope, are heads of the faithful belonging to their rites throughout the world.

Subject to the Holy Father and directly responsible to him for the exercise of their ministry of service to people in various jurisdictions or divisions of the Church throughout the world are: resident archbishops and metropolitans (heads of archdioceses and provinces), resident bishops (heads of dioceses), vicars and prefects apostolic (heads of vicariates apostolic and prefectures apostolic), certain abbots and prelates, apostolic administrators. Each of these, within his respective territory and according to the provisions of cannon law, has ordinary jurisdiction over pastors (who are responsible for the administration of parishes), priests, religious and lay persons.

Also subject to the Holy Father are titular archbishops and bishops (who have delegated jurisdiction), religious orders and congregations of pontifical law, pontifical institutes and faculties, papal nuncios and apostolic delegates.

Assisting the pope and acting in his name in the central government and administration of the Church are cardinals and other officials of the departments of the Roman Curia.

THE SYNOD OF BISHOPS

In virtue of a document entitled "Apostolica Sollicitudo" issued on his own initiative on September 15, 1965, Paul VI provided for the establishment of a Synod of Bishops to advise the pope on matters pertaining to the welfare of the universal Church. This enactment founded the Synod as a juridical body having the nature of an ad hoc committee of representative bishops which the pope can activate and call into session at any time.

- The purposes of the Synod are: "to encourage close union and valued assistance between the Sovereign Pontiff and the bishops of the entire world; to insure that direct and real information is provided on questions and situations touching upon the internal action of the Church and its necessary activity in the world of today; to facilitate agreement on essential points of doctrine and on methods of procedure in the life of the Church."
- The Synod is a central ecclesiastical institution, perpetual by nature.
- It is directly and immediately subject to the pope, who has authority to assign its agenda, to call it into session, and to give its members deliberative as well as advisory authority.
- In addition to a limited number of ex officio and a few religious participants, the majority of members are to be elected by and representatives of national or regional episcopal conferences. The pope reserved the right to appoint the general secretary, special secretaries, and no more than 15 per cent of the total membership.

The Synod met for the first time in September 1967. The last meeting took place in September-October 1974, dealing with "The Evangelisation in the Modern World."

THE SOUTHERN AFRICAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS' CONFERENCE (SACBC)

The Church in Southern Africa under the Apostolic Delegation consists of thirty-nine ecclesiastical territories, thirty of which constitute the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference (SACBC), six the Rhodesia Catholic Bishops' Conference (RCBC) and three the Lesotho Catholic Bishops' Conference (LCBC). For the Kingdom of Lesotho, the Papal Representative has the status of Pro-Nuncio.

Because of the missionary nature of the work of the Church in Southern Africa, the Archdioceses, Dioceses, Vicariates and Prefectures still fall under the direction of the Sacred Congregation for the Evangelisation of the Peoples, also known as the Sacred Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith.

The Conference is an association of the Local Ordinaries, other than Vicars General, of the Roman Catholic Church in the Republic of South Africa, South West Africa, Botswana and Swaziland, their coadjutors, auxiliaries and other titular Bishops who perform special work entrusted to them by the Apostolic See, or by the Conference itself.

The Conference is primarily a consultative body and its resolutions outside the cases mentioned below have no binding force on the Ordinaries or their subjects except insofar as individual Ordinaries consent to support them.

In terms of paragraph 38, No. 4 of the Decree of the Second Vatican Council on the Pastoral Office of Bishops' "Christus Dominus", decisions of the Conference are juridically binding only when prescribed by the Common Law, or specified by a special mandate of the Holy See given "Motu Proprio", or in response to a petition from the Conference, they are made in due form by a two-thirds majority of those present, and are reviewed by the said Holy See.

The Conference is empowered to set up Commissions for the fostering of special objectives and activities. Each Commission shall meet as often as is deemed necessary, but at least once a year.

The Chairmen of the Commissions shall constitute the Administrative Board of the Conference.

Since 1952, the Bishops' Conference has issued statements or pastoral letters in which guidance is given to the faithful in matters of faith and morals especially where these affect all language groups. "In racially pluralistic countries like South Africa, racial prejudice takes on a crucial prominence. It is for this reason that this Conference in Plenary Session finds it necessary to reiterate the vigorous condemnation of the Vatican Council: 'Discrimination is to be eradicated as contrary to God's intent (1966)'."

All these letters are published in one volume and are obtainable from the Press Commission, PO Box 941, Pretoria.

The Conference publishes an Information Bulletin INTER NOS, usually bimonthly. Since 1970, its fifth year of publication, its scope has widened from reporting on ecumenical news items to covering matters concerning all the pastoral activities of the Conference and its Commissions.

President of the Conference and Chairman of the Administrative Board: Most Reverend Archbishop J. P. Fitzgerald, OMI.

Pontifical Missionary Union: National President: Rt. Rev. Bishop E. A. Green, D.D., National Director: Rt. Rev. Mgr. D. J. Hatton.

The Pontifical Society of the Holy Childhood:

This Society founded in 1843 was at first called the "angelic society" since its aim was to save children through other children. Concern was felt for pagan children and Mgr. Forbin-Janson sought to provide missionaries with the means to save these children. The Society seeks to create mission mindedness among young children by encouraging them to make little sacrifices and to pray for their little brothers and sisters in mission lands.

The patronal feast of the Society is on January 6th or some day during the Christmas season.

The Society is governed by a Superior Council comprised of the various National Directors and representatives of several Missionary Institutes. The National Director for South Africa is Rt. Rev. Mgr. D. J. Hatton.

The Society of St Peter the Apostle:

This Society was started in France in 1889 by Jeanne and Stephanie Bigard. Its aim is to provide scholarships for indigenous students for the Priesthood and to assist in the building of Seminaries. Thanks to the efforts of the Bigard sisters hundreds of seminaries have been founded, thousands of priests and dozens of Bishops have been trained in Africa, America, Asia and Oceania. The Society has also made grants towards the founding of houses of formation for religious congregations.

The Pontifical Society for the Propagation of the Faith:

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith was founded in Lyons, France, by Pauline Jaricot. The first members were working people employed in a factory belonging to the Jaricot family. This grass roots basis has remained one of the fundamental characteristics of the Society. It is thanks to the contributions, prayers and sacrifices of a large number of ordinary people that the Society succeeds in its goal of organising the co-operation of all in the task laid upon the Church by Christ's command: "Go and teach all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The Society moved its headquarters to Rome in 1922. It is now governed by a Superior Council whose President is the Secretary of the Sacred Congregation for the Evangelisation of Peoples. It is composed of a number of Councillors who reside in Rome and more than fifty National Directors from all over the world. This Council meets in May and November each year in Rome to distribute according to the needs of the various churches the "common fund contributed by the whole people of God for the help of the churches in mission lands."

CARITAS SOUTH AFRICA

Caritas is a Relief Agency founded in 1970 by the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference. Mgr. J. R. Hughes was its first Director. Caritas South Africa is a member of Caritas Internationalis whose headquarters is in Rome at Piazza S. Calisto. Its aims are the relief of distress and poverty and also to participate in development projects.

SOUTHERN AFRICAN COUNCIL OF PRIESTS

The Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference, at its meeting in Cape Town on the 3rd September, 1970, decided to launch preparations for the establishment of a provisional council of priests for Southern Africa.

The first meeting of this provisional council took place at Pretoria in December, 1970. On 9th December, 1970, the provisional council decided that a permanent council of priests should be established. In July, 1971, the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference accepted the Constitution of the Southern African Council of Priests and established the Council as a permanent one.

In the words of the Constitution:

"The purpose of the Council shall be to promote, in hierarchical communion, an efficacious sharing of responsibility in the mission of the Church.

To this end, the Council shall serve as:

(a) an instrument for closer co-operation with the S.A.C.B.C. in matters of general concern;
(b) a forum for the exchange and co-ordination of the views of priests as to the mission of the Church, in a true spirit of brotherly unity;
(c) an agency dealing with problems affecting the personal life and ministry of priests;
(d) a medium of helpful collaboration with other legitimately constituted apostolic groups, especially those engaged at national level;
(e) a means of co-operating with Christian and Non-Christian bodies in the development of ecumenical activities.

The priests of the Republic of South Africa, the territories of South West Africa, Botswana and Swaziland are all represented on the Council through delegates from their respective dioceses.

The present Executive Committee consists of:

Father P. Nadal	Chairman
Father R. Maluleke	Vice-Chairman

THE ECUMENICAL RESEARCH UNIT

The Ecumenical Research Unit, sponsored originally by the Anglican and the Catholic Churches, came into existence in 1970 to study existing Christian Organizations, the societies in which they are placed, and how best they might set about fulfilling their mission with insight and understanding.

The Unit achieves this end by using the most up-to-date methods of the human sciences, by employing highly qualified people and committees, and by collaborating with respected international organisations dealing with similar problems. It is a member of the Federation of Socio-Religious Research Institutions (FERES), the International Conference of Sociology and Religion (CISR), and the South African Missiological Society. It also works closely with research units in Nairobi and Uganda. While the methods of scholarship are used, the purpose is always pastoral.

Since its inception, the South African Council of Churches and the Federation of Evangelical Lutheran Churches of Southern Africa have become member churches of the Unit.

The Rev. Canon Trevor Verryn is Director. He is assisted by a Researcher and a Secretary.

Lay Franciscans: The Third Order of St Francis was founded in the early 13th Century and approved by the Pope in 1221. Many lay people wished to join St. Francis but were prevented from doing so by their duties. So Francis drew up a rule or way of life for them to follow. People from all walks of life have lived by this rule, many of them becoming outstanding Christians in doing so.

The Popes have often recommended this way of life to the faithful and constantly supported it. In order to keep it in touch with the times, the rule has been revised from time to time without losing the original spirit of Francis. Basically the rule encourages people to live the Gospel to the full. In particular it seeks to stimulate a spirit of prayer and concern for others through the the apostolate. There are branches of the Third Order in Cape Town, Pretoria, Durban and Johannesburg.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CAPE TOWN

Suffragan Sees: Port Elizabeth, Aliwal, Oudtshoorn, Queenstown, De Aar.

PATRONS:

1. Our Lady of the Flight into Egypt. 2. St. Patrick.

From the time of the discovery of the Cape, ecclesiastical jurisdiction over it appertained to the Portuguese missionary authorities. After the settlement of the Cape in 1652, the practice of the Catholic religion was prohibited by the civil authorities.

Commissioner General De Mist, by an Ordinance of 25 July 1804, declared that "all religious societies which for the furtherance of virtue and good morals worship an Almighty Being, are to enjoy in this Colony equal protection from the laws . . ." and in 1805 three Dutch priests arrived to minister to the Catholics of the Cape. One of them, Father Johannes Lansink, was appointed Prefect Apostolic. The following year the military authorities ordered them to leave.

In February, 1818, Pope Pius VII erected the Vicariate Apostolic of the Cape of Good Hope and adjacent territories. Subsequently the Island of Mauritius was added, and the first Vicar Apostolic, Right Reverend Bishop Bede Slater, O.S.B., having called at the Cape, went to reside there. He was succeeded by Rt. Reverend Bishop William Placid Morris, O.S.B., who also resided at Mauritius.

On 6 June 1837, Pope Gregory XVI constituted the Cape of Good Hope a separate Vicariate and appointed Rt. Reverend Bishop Patrick Raymund Griffith, O.P., as the first resident Vicar Apostolic.

In 1874, the Vicariate of the Cape of Good Hope was divided into the Vicariates of the Western District of the Cape of Good Hope and the Eastern District of the Cape of Good Hope.

On 24 May 1872, the Prefecture of the Central District of the Cape of Good Hope was detached from the Western Vicariate.

By decree of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda Fide dated 13 June 1939, the name of the Western Vicariate was changed to the Vicariate of Cape Town.

On 11 January 1951, Pope Pius XII established by Papal Bull the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy in the then Union of South Africa, and set up the Ecclesiastical Province of Cape Town, comprising the Metropolitan Church of Cape Town, with the suffragan sees of Aliwal, Oudtshoorn, Port Elizabeth, Queenstown and De Aar.

By the same Papal Bull, the Most Reverend Archbishop Owen McCann was appointed to the Metropolitan See of Cape Town.

The Archdiocese has for its boundaries: on the West, the Atlantic Ocean; on the North, the southern boundaries of the Van Rhynsdorp district; on the East, the western boundaries of the Calvinia, Ceres, Tulbagh, Worcester, Robertson and Swellendam districts; on the South, the Indian Ocean. The civil districts within the ecclesiastical area comprise the following: Cape, Wynberg, Simonstown, Bellville, Somerset West, Stellenbosch, Paarl, Wellington, Caledon, Bredasdorp, Malmesbury, Piquetberg, Clanwilliam. The Islands of Tristan da Cunha, Ascension and St. Helena belong to the Archdiocese.

On 13th June 1939, the name: Central Prefecture was changed to Prefecture of Oudtshoorn which was raised to the Status of Vicariate on 9th December 1948. On the establishment of the Hierarchy, 11th January, 1951, the Diocese of Oudtshoorn was constituted. DIOCESE OF JOHANNESBURG

(Province of Pretoria)

PATRONESS: The Immaculate Conception

The territory of the Transvaal was under the jurisdiction of the Vicar Apostolic of Natal, Mgr. M. F. Allard, O.M.I., as from 5 October 1850, and as early as the year 1854, Holy Mass was celebrated at Mooi River, now called Potchefstroom, by a travelling priest. According to the law then in vogue, "no other religion but that of the Dutch Reform Church was allowed within the South African Republic", but occasional visits were made by priests from Natal and the Free State, until in 1869, Rev. Fr. Le Bihan, O.M.I., was appointed to that area. He was immediately responsible for the abolition of this law and subsequent freedom of Catholic worship.

In 1886, the Transvaal was separated from Natal and erected into an ecclesiastical Prefecture, under Rt. Rev. O. Monginoux, O.M.I., (1886-91), (died 28.11.1917). He was succeeded by Rt. Rev. A. Schoch, O.M.I., (1892-1898), who died in April 1898. The Rev. John De Lacy, O.M.I., acted in the interim until 1902, when Bishop Matthew Gaughren, O.M.I., Vicar Apostolic of Kimberley, also served as Administrator of the Transvaal.

The Transvaal became a Vicariate in 1904, with Bishop W. Miller, O.M.I., as first Vicar Apostolic. The territory has since been subdivided, first in 1910, when the northern part was confined to the care of the Benedictines; then in 1923, when the Lydenburgh Prefecture was formed under the Missionaries, Sons of the Sacred Heart, then in 1948 when the Pretoria Vicariate was erected, and finally in 1965 when the Prefecture of Western Transvaal was handed over to the Oblates of Mary Immaculate of the Belgian Province.

It comprises the following civil districts: Johannesburg, Alberton, Balfour, Benoni, Boksburg, Brakpan, Delmas, Germiston, Heidelberg, Kempton Park, Krugersdorp, Nigel, Oberholzer, Randburg, Randfontein, Roodepoort, Springs, Vereeniging, Vanderbijlpark, and Westonaria.

With the creation of the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy in the Union of South Africa on the 11 January 1951, the Vicariate was raised to the status of a Diocese.

Area: 14 536 Km^2. Estimated Catholic Population: 293 357.

The Diocese is bounded on the West by the Prefecture of the Western Transvaal; on the South by the Vaal River; on the East by Lydenburg-Witbank Diocese and the Prefecture of Volksrust, and on the North by the Archdiocese of Pretoria.

MARONITE CHURCH

Church of Our Lady of Lebanon: 61, Mint Road, Fordsburg, Box 42135, Fordsburg (2033), Tel. 834-7128 (011).

The Maronite Church was founded in Johannesburg in 1908.

The Maronite Church is an Oriental Church belonging to the Syriac Liturgy of Antioch ascribed to St James the Apostle. The Liturgical Language is Syriac or Aramaic, while the vernacular has always been in use.

According to the Statute No. 113 of the Diocese of Johannesburg, which is In accordance with Canons 98 & 756, special instructions are given to all priests regarding the baptism of Orientals.

People who belong to the Oriental Rite in South Africa are bound, regarding marriage, to have their Banns called in the Maronite Church, Johannesburg, by order of the Sacred Congregation for the Oriental Church.

The Pope in his "Motu Proprio" of 22 February 1949 published the section of the projected code of Oriental Canon Law which refers to marriage. The new laws abolish those previously in force and apply from 2 May 1949. They bind all persons of Oriental Rite all over the world. These marriage laws differ in many respects from Latin Rite Laws. Whenever a person of Oriental Rite comes to a Latin Rite Priest to be married, he or she remains bound by the Laws of the Oriental Rite. The children follow the rite of the father, or of the Catholic parent in a mixed marriage. This is the case even where they have been baptised by a Latin Rite priest. The fact that they have been baptised and brought up exclusively in the Latin Rite does not exempt them from the laws of their own rite. (The Clergy Review, May 1949).

ARCHDIOCESE OF DURBAN

Suffragan Sees & Prefectures: Marianhill, Umzimkulu, Eshowe, Umtata, Kokstad, Volksrust, Ingwavuma.

PATRONESS:
Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception

This Territory wes erected as the Vicariate of Natal on 5 October 1850, extending "from the Kei River, that is, from the boundary of the Eastern Vicariate of the Cape of Good Hope, to Quilimane that is, the Eastern extremity of Portuguese territory, and interiorly to the Tropic." It was confided to the Oblates of Mary Immaculate.

The vague delimitation of these boundaries prompted many queries on the part of the first Vicar Apostolic, Bishop Allard, who finally interpreted them as extending Northwards as far as the Tropic of Capricorn and excluding Portuguese territory. On 15 March 1876 a clarification was issued to Bishop Jolivet establishing the boundaries of the Natal Vicariate as following the line of the coast from the Kei River to Quilimane, then along the 18th degree of latitude South, down the 18th degree of longitude East, and finally along the course of the Orange River and the frontier of the Cape Colony, leaving British Kaffraria in the Eastern Vicariate.

This huge territory was divided soon afterwards when the Zambesi Mission was confided to the Society of Jesus in 1879. There followed in 1886 the erection of the "Vicariate of the Orange Free State," (comprising the Free State, Basutoland and the Diamond Fields); and the Prefecture of the Transvaal. In 1921 further divisions were made with the creation of the Vicariates Apostolic of Mariannhill, Eshowe and Swaziland.

On the establishment of the Hierarchy on 11 January 1951 the Vicariate Apostolic of Natal became the Archdiocese of Durban.

In 1958 the Northern section of the Archdiocese was detached to form part of the Prefecture Apostolic of Volksrust.

The Ecclesiastical Province of Durban embraces besides the Archdiocese, the suffragan sees of Mariannhill, Eshowe, Umtata, Kokstad, Umzimkulu, the Prefecture Apostolic of Volksrust and the Prefecture of Ingwavuma.

The Archdiocese of Durban comprises the civil districts of Camperdown, north of Umlaas River, (except the farms of Mariannhill, Klaarwater, Dassenhoek, Welbedag and portion of Stockville), Durban, Escourt, Inanda, Kranskop, Llons, River, Lower Tugela, Mapumulo, Umvoti, Weenen, Bergville and part of Msinga.

Area: 2031855 Km². Estimated Catholic Population: 153 542.

Bishop Charles Joseph Eugene de Mazenod, Founder of the Congregation of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. Retired in 1873, appointed Archbishop of Taron in partibus — died at Rome in 1889. 2. Rt. Rev. DIOCESE OF ESHOWE

(Province of Durban)

The Prefecture of Zululand was erected on the 27th August 1921 and entrusted to the Benedictine Congregation of St Ottilien. Before that time it had formed part of Natal Vicariate. On 11 December 1923 it was raised to the status of a Vicariate under the title of "Vicariate Apostolic of Eshowe." With the establishment of the Hierarchy in South Africa it became the Diocese of Eshowe on the 11 January 1951. This Diocese now comprises Zululand proper, (with the exception of the districts of Ingwavuma, Umbombo and Hlabisa), and the four Natal districts of Vryheid, Paulpietersburg, Ngotshe and Babanango. It is therefore bounded on the East by the Indian Ocean, on the South by the Tugela River, on the West by the Tugela, Buffalo, Blood and Didusini Rivers ,on the North by the Pongola and Umfolozi Rivers.

ARCHDIOCESE OF BLOEMFONTEIN

Suffragan Sees: Kimberley, Kroonstad, Keimoes, Bethlehem, Gaborone.

PATRON: The Sacred Heart of Jesus

Originally the area of the Orange Free State was part of the Vicariate of Natal, which was established by the Holy See on 5th October, 1850, extending from the Kei River in the South and to Quillemane in the north and confided to the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. Bishop J. E. Allard, OMI, was appointed the first Vicar Apostolic. Consecrated in Marseilles on 13th July, 1851.

The Zambesi Mission to the North of the Limpopo was confided to the Society of Jesus in 1879. Then in 1886 the remaining territory under Bishop C. Jolivet, OMI, was subdivided into the Prefecture of the Transvaal and the Vicariate of the Orange Free State, comprising the Free State, Basutoland and the Diamond Fields; on the North and on the West, the Vaal River; and on the East the Drakensberg Mountains. The new Vicar Apostolic, Bishop Anthony Gaughren, OMI, (consecrated in Tower Hill, London, 10th August, 1886) would reside at Bloemfontein. Bishop Q. Devereux of Grahamstown had sent Father R. Hoenderwangers, O. Praem. to visit Bloemfontein in 1850 and he took up residence there in 1852, remaining as the pioneer priest of the Free State until his return to Belgium in 1869, when his place was taken by Father Le Behan, OMI and later by Father V. Bompart, OMI.

When Bishop A. Gaughren arrived in November 1886 the train terminus from Cape Town was Kimberley and so he took up residence there, travelling regularly by post cart to Bloemfontein and on to Basutoland. Kimberley remained the Episcopal Residence for his successors Bishop Matthew Gaughren, OMI (1902 - 1914) and Bishop H. J. Meysing, OMI (1924 - 1951). During the Interregnum (1914 - 1924) Bishop C. Cox, OMI of the Transvaal was Administrator Apostolic.

On 11th January 1951, by Papal Bull, Pope Pius XII established the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy in the then Union of South Africa, and set up the Ecclesiastical Province of Bloemfontein.

The Archdiocese includes the civil districts: Bloemfontein, Boshof, Brandfort, Jewetsdorp, Edenburg, Fauresmith, Jacobsdal, Philippolis, Reddersburg, Smithfield, Thaba'nchu, Trompsburg, Wepener, Zastron, and portion of Ladybrand, Hoopstad and Winburg.

BISDOM KROONSTAD

PATROON: Sint Patricius

Tot 1924 was hierdie gebied deel van die Apostoliese Vikariaat Kimberley. By die Heilige Kongregasie van die Voorplanting van die Geloof se dekreet van 26 November, 1923 het die noordelike helfte van die Oranje Vrystaat 'n Apostoliese Prefektuur geword, waarvoor die sorg aan die Duitse provinsie van die Heilige Geesvaders toevertrou is. Op 24 Maart, 1924 is Seereerw. Leo Klerlein, C.S.Sp., as eerste Apostoliese Prefek aangestel. Die Apostoliese Prefektuur het op 8 April, 1935 Vikariaat geword, en Mgr. Klerlein is tot eerste Apostoliese Vikaris van Kroonstad benoem.

In Februarie van die jaar 1948 is die oostelike deel van dié gebied as die Apostoliese Vikariaat Bethlehem genoem — die westelike deel het die benaming Apostoliese Vikariaat Kroonstad gehou. In Maart van dieselfde jaar is Sy Hoogeerw. Mgr. G. van Velsen, O.P., as Apostoliese Administrateur van dié gebied benoem, wat nou aan die Dominikane van die Nederlandse provinsie toevertrou is. Op 6 Julie, 1948 het hulle die Heilige Gees-vaders opgevolg.

By geleentheid van die invoering van die kerklike hiërargie in Suid-Afrika op 11 Januarie 1951, het die Apostoliese Vikariaat Kroonstad 'n Bisdom geword.

Die grense van die Bisdom Kroonstad is: Vaalrivier in die noorde en weste; Groot Vetrivier en die suidelike distriksgrense van Winburg in die suide; en die distriksgrense van Heilbron, Kroonstad, Ventersburg en Winburg in die ooste.

Die gebied omvat die volgende distrikte: Heilbron, Kroonstad, Ventersburg, Winburg, Odendaalsrus, Hoopstad (noordelike deel), Bothaville, Viljoenskroon, Parys, Sasolburg, Koppies, Welkom, Virginia en Vredefort.
